

CEAM Control Equipment - © www.ceamgroup.com

System Updating Procedures

The present note has got worth only if it is at disposal the update of the mentioned object, in positive case, the software can be updated by the following modalities:

By the purchasing year, the Software can be updated as follows:

Via Internet - Totally free:

Requesting to our customer service the sending by email of the file "Up-Grade" updated, in this case it will not be sent neither the case nor the original compact disk.

By Mail or Currier – with charge:

Requesting to the customer service the mailing by post or by currier the complete "Up-Grade" package, in this case the customer will be charged of the cost of the package and of all the expense of Handling and Shipping.

Over the year of the buying date, the Software can be updated by fee paying as follows:

By Internet :

Requesting to the customer service the forwarding by email of the single "Up-Grade" updated, in this case it will not be sent neither the case nor the original compact disk.

By Mail or Currier :

Requesting to the customer service the mailing by post or by currier the complete "Up-Grade" package, in this case the customer will be charged of the cost of the UP-Grade licence, of the package and of all the expense of Handling and Shipping.

In any case, to be able to use any free or charged service, the product will have to result to be registered and the requester will have to supply the information about the same, the purchasing data, the production batch code, and finally about its identity.

Attention: the Up-Grade Software, is not an additional installation license, but only the updating of the license of which we have the using rights, in the same limitation and terms underwritten at the installation moment.